Fundraising and donations

In the driving seat

Poor old Jeremy Clarkson trying to keep this lot in order during the very successful quiz night organised by the Braddell family and held on March 11th at the Dragon School, Oxford

Cabaret time at Brightmet Labour Club

'These are the children who danced in the charity performance held in memory of Dean Worswick. The purpose was to raise money for PAPYRUS. All the kids enjoyed it very much and we hope that we can continue to raise money for your fantastic charity!'

Regards, Vicky, Justine, Laura (The dance teachers)

PAPYRUS mission statement: PAPYRUS is a voluntary organisation committed to the prevention of young suicide and to the promotion of good mental health and emotional well-being.

It was founded in 1997 by parents whose sons or daughters had taken their own lives.

Its main aims are:

To promote an understanding of the unique contribution that parents, families and carers can make to suicide prevention.

To promote public awareness of the importance of emotional well-being and good mental health.

Membership is open to anyone with an interest in suicide prevention.

Membership application forms are available from our office or download from here.

Many thanks to:

Papyrus-in-the Marches (PiMs)
Mrs Hilary Fowler and The Pamperec Chef
Lynn Shevill and friends
The Braddell family
